Venn Promotes Four

WASHINGTON, DC – Venn Strategies, a nationally recognized public affairs and government relations firm twice named among the fastest-growing private companies in the United States (the “Inc. 5000”), announced it has promoted four members of the firm to key positions. The firm promoted:

- Jakara Eason to Vice President within the firm’s Healthcare team. Eason, who specializes in multi-platform stakeholder and grassroots initiatives, joined the firm in 2018 as part of the firm’s events and programs team before transitioning to the Healthcare team.
- Justin Livesey to Vice President within the firm’s Tax and Financial Services practice. Livesey joined the firm in 2021 after serving as a legislative aide on tax and economic policy in the office of Senator Ron Johnson (R-WI) and on the Tax Subcommittee of the House Committee on Ways and Means.
- Niaz Siasi to Vice President, directing the firm’s day-to-day operations and leading its programs and events department. Siasi joined Venn in 2018 as a member of the firm’s events and programs team, which she now oversees.
- Mwai Sande to Associate. Sande joined the firm following her role as a researcher at the University of Maryland and an internship at the Library of Congress.

“These promotions reflect the exceptional talent at Venn and the firm’s focus to grow talent from within,” said Venn Strategies founder and CEO Stephanie Silverman. “Each of these individuals has demonstrated outstanding leadership and a commitment to our clients and internally at the firm. Their contributions continue to drive Venn’s growth and impact. “
